

MINNEAPOLIS KENNEL CLUB ANNOUNCES 2010 DOG SHOW
NOVEMBER 20 & 21 AT CANTERBURY PARK

WHAT: Minneapolis Kennel Club Dog Show

The show attracts over 1,200 dogs in all-breed conformation competition and junior showmanship. Participating dogs will come from all of the American Kennel Club's recognized groups: sporting, hound, working, terrier, toy, non-sporting and herding. Handlers showing the dogs will come from across the country and range in age from 9 years to senior citizens. One of the highlights of the show is junior showmanship where handlers are 9 to 17 years old. More than 50 young people are expected to compete during the 2010 show. This year's show will have a theme of responsible dog ownership.

WHY: The Minneapolis Kennel Club Dog Show is affordable, entertaining and educational for all ages. The show's "Meet the Breeds" event offers attendees an opportunity to learn about selected breeds during up-close encounters and discuss the traits with owners and breeders. The event is a fun, family friendly way for people to learn about the various breeds and is invaluable for those who are looking to add a new four-legged family member.

WHO: Founded in 1933, the Minneapolis Kennel Club is one of the oldest kennel clubs in Minnesota. The club held its first benched dog show in 1934 at the Minneapolis Auditorium. Its mission is to further the advancement of all breeds of purebred dogs, to advance the interests of dog shows and obedience trials, and to encourage sportsmanship at such events.
